

AMERICAS TAILINGS SECURES TAILINGS PROPERTIES IN THE HISTORICAL MAGDALENA MINING DISTRICT IN NEW MEXICO

Denver, Colorado – July 29, 2018 – Americas Tailings Inc. (“Americas Tailings”) announces that it has secured rights to tailings sites in the historical Magdalena mining district in New Mexico.

Americas Tailings has secured rights to several private properties containing tailings material in the historical Magdalena mining district near Socorro in central New Mexico. Americas Tailings plans to conduct development work and investigate processing technologies that can be applied to produce commercial products from the tailings material.

Americas Tailings Inc. is a private, Denver-based, Earth-Friendly resource company focused on securing rights to develop historical tailings sites in the western USA and, by applying modern, commercially-viable, environmentally-friendly processing technologies, extracting the metals value and remediating the tailings sites (www.americastailings.com).
